

Brescia Bold Summer Reading

Theme: Travel

Here is a list of suggestions the writing centre received for our summer reading list. We asked for suggestions related to travel and these are the responses we received.

If you aren't sure where to start, consider looking for a book by a woman writer. You might be inspired to read some of the many blogs written by women who travel, or to write your own book or blog! Brescia's librarians will be sorting our list and identifying books that are available in our library. Look for more info in the library and on Brescia Writing Centre's Facebook page.
